Section 3 – Internal union business. The internal business of the Union shall be conducted by the employees during their non-duty hours; provided, however, that selected and designated Union officers or appointees shall be allowed a reasonable amount of paid time to investigate and process grievances, including arbitration matters, but the Employer will not compensate the aforementioned individuals for time spent in such activities outside of their normal work schedule, nor may an individual create any overtime liability as a direct or indirect result of such activities.

Section 4 – Union access to worksite. The Union's staff will be allowed to visit work areas of the bargaining unit employees during work hours and confer on employment relation's matters, provided that such visitations shall be coordinated in advance with Management, and shall not unduly disrupt work in progress.

Section 5 – Bulletin boards. The Union may utilize a reasonable amount of space on bulletin boards as determined by local management on bulletin boards currently used for employee notices. No derogatory information concerning the Employer shall be posted by the Union.

Section 6 – Personnel files. Accredited union representatives shall, with the written approval of the bargaining unit employee, have the right to inspect the employee's personnel file, with the exception of medical information unless the issue involves such matters, and only where justification is advanced for such access by the Union or the Union receives a HIPAA release from the employee.

Section 7 – Meeting rooms. The Union may be allowed to use the employer's facilities for Union meetings contingent upon availability and management approval. The Union shall be liable for any damages as a result of such use.

Section 8 – Release time. The Employer shall grant a reasonable amount of paid release time per biennium to a designated Union representative for pre-budget negotiations.

4. UNION SECURITY

Section 2 – Employer remittance. Upon receipt of a written authorization from an employee covered by this Agreement, the Employer shall deduct from the employee's pay the amount owed to the Union by the employee for dues or a representation fee. The Employer will remit to the Union such sums within 30 calendar days. The Union may make written notice of default and demand for discharge after the 30-day period specified above. The Employer shall initiate appropriate discharge actions under this provision to ensure discharge of the affected employee(s) on the 30th day from receipt by the Employer of the Union's written notice of default and demand for discharge.

If the employee fails to give such notification, the absence may be charged to leave without pay. Absence in excess of one shift without receipt of proper notification by the Employer from the employee shall constitute just cause for immediate discharge, unless the failure to give such notification was due to circumstances beyond the control of the employee.

Employees may choose to take two consecutive accrued workweeks of annual leave per year or take annual leave on a single day or split-vacation basis. Employees desiring a leave of absence to pursue educational objectives should make a written request for such a leave to the regional deputy public defender or his/her designee. The regional deputy public defender or designee will consider the nature of the request and the needs of the office and then determine whether the leave of absence can be granted, and if so, whether the leave will be paid or unpaid. The regional deputy public defender or designee may also consider whether the employer will provide any contributions toward tuition, fees, materials or travel. The granting or denial of education leave specific in this paragraph is the Employer's sole discretion.

Section 9 – Discretionary leave. Employees who desire a leave of absence for reasons not expressly covered by other sections of the Agreement may request a discretionary leave of absence from the regional deputy public defender or his/her designee. The employee should request the leave of absence in writing, and specify both the reasons for the leave and expected duration of the leave. The regional deputy public defender possesses the sole discretion to determine whether the request will be granted, with or without pay, and the duration for the leave of absence.

13. VACANCIES AND PROMOTIONS

Section 1. The following procedures will be followed in the posting and filling of vacant or newly created permanent positions. The purpose of this system is to inform employees of vacancies and newly created positions and to afford employees, who are interested and who feel they qualify, an equal opportunity to apply for the vacant or newly created position. Section 1. An employee may request and receive a copy of his/her current position description at any time.

Section 2. An evaluation system approved by the Public Defender Commission shall be utilized by the Employer in the evaluation of employees covered by this Agreement. Supervisors shall receive training in the operation of the performance appraisal system before evaluating employees.

Section 3. When performance appraisals are prepared by the employee's immediate supervisor and the next higher supervisor, the results of the combined evaluation shall be transmitted to the employee in the form of a copy of his/her performance appraisal. The immediate supervisor shall discuss the evaluation with the employee and note by signature retained in the personnel file that the evaluation has been discussed with the employee. If the employee desires to submit a brief written statement in explanation or mitigation of any remark on the performance appraisal form, the statement shall be attached to the performance appraisal form in the personnel file.

Section 4. Information reflecting critically on an employee may not be placed in a personnel file unless the document has been sent to the employee, initialed by the employee, or a supervisor has noted in the file that the employee has refused to initial or accept the document in question.

Section 5. An employee desiring that material which s/he feels is incorrect and should be removed from the personnel file of the employee, shall have the right to appeal it through the grievance procedure.

Section 6. The Union shall be notified of any proposed changes or additions to personnel rules, regulations and policies issued by the Office of the State Public Defender or Public Defender Commission sufficiently in advance to allow discussion and comment.

Section 4. The Employer shall provide, on a timely basis, information on the rules, policies or laws, and if necessary, will provide necessary training on matters, which directly affect the employees.
